

LUKA WEINERT | Counsel

Ms Weinert has been employed as a lawyer at what is now Dienemann Rechtsanwälte since April 2018. Until April 2026, the firm operated under the name Wachenhausen Dienemann Rechtsanwälte. She focuses her practice on matters relating to clinical research with medicinal products and medical devices and specifically supports clients in drafting relevant contractual arrangements. She also advises clients on other regulatory and compliance-related matters both concerning medicinal products and medical devices, in particular, concerning product promotion, healthcare compliance and data protection.

Before joining Dienemann Rechtsanwälte, Ms Weinert worked as a lawyer at Taylor Wessing in Hamburg.

Ms Weinert studied law at the Westfälische Wilhelms-University of Münster with a focus in criminal law. During her studies, she successfully completed a two-year Foreign Languages for Lawyers Training focusing on the common law legal system and including an internship in a law firm in England. Following her first state exam, she completed her legal training at the Hanseatic Higher Regional Court in Hamburg. Ms Weinert is admitted to the bar since 2017.

She is the author of numerous publications on issues relating to medicinal product and medical device law and is a regular speaker at specialist events and in-house training courses. Furthermore, she is a member of the specialist department for veterinary medicinal products of the German Pharmaceutical Industry Association (“BPIvet”) as well as a member of the “Clinical Research” committee of the BPI.

Furthermore, since 2025, she has been serving as a voluntary member of the Ethics Committee at the University of Lübeck.

Ms Weinert provides legal advice in German and in English.
